Consumer Protection Bill Passed

By CARL C. CRAFT
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon's consumer aide, pointing to the House seal of approval, is recommending that the Senate buy a consumer-protection plan containing what promoters promise will be a triple treat for the public.

But consumer advocate Ralph Nader's hard-core House loyalists, failing Thursday in their widely advertised attempt to expand the scope of a proposed new consumer-protection agency's activities, urged their Senate sympathizers to inspect the fine print in the legislative product.

The House's 344-44 passage of the bill essentially in the same form offered by the Government Operations Committee was applauded by Virginia Knauer, President Nixon's special assistant for consumer affairs, as "an important victory for all consumers.

"This landmark legislation ... will provide the consumer effective representation on matters that affect his health, his safety and his pocketbook. The wide margin of support reflects the judgment of the House that the committee bill is a strong measure and refutes the contrary claims of the few remaining critics," Mrs. Knauer said.

Arkla Going on With Gas Curtailment

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)— Officials at Arkansas Louisiana Gas Co. said that a gas curtailment plan that a federal examiner claims is "discriminatory and preferential" would go into effect today.

Arkla filed the plan last May with the Federal Power Commission to establish priorities for the delivery of gas in case a gas shortage occurs. Alvin A. Kurtz, an FPC examiner, recommended Wednesday that the commission reject the plan.

Kurtz' recommendation said the plan discriminated against major industrial users in favor of small industrial users. The plan provides that if gas service must be curtailed, the group that will be the last to undergo curtailment will be those in the "human needs" category, including schools, hospitals and homes.

The plan originally was to have become effective last June 15, but implementation was suspended for 120 days for hearings and study by the FPC. The suspension period expired today.

Arkla said Thursday that Kurtz' recommendation was in direct conflict with a recommendation of the FPC staff and in conflict with evidence in the case.

Soviet Aid to Egypt May Cause U.S. to Send More Help to Israel

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Secretary of State William P. Rogers says the United States will have to reconsider its military commitments to Israel because of the Soviet promise of more military aid to Egypt.

Rogers conferred for an hour Thursday with Foreign Minister Abba Eban. The Israeli said afterward he put "great emphasis" on Israel's request for more U.S. planes.

Warplane shipments are reported to have halted last July at the expiration of the contract. The Israelis especially want more Phantom jet fighter-bombers.

The Soviet pledge was issued Wednesdy night after President Anwar Sadat of Egypt wound up two days of meetings with Soviet leaders in Moscow. A Soviet-Egyptian communique said the two sides agreed "on measures aimed at further strengthening the military might of Egypt."

Noting the pledge, Rogers told newsmen after his meeting with Eban: "In view of that, we will have to carefully consider our position, particularly in the light of President Nixon's commitment when he said that the military balance in the Middle East will not change."

A U.S. official told newsmen the Soviet promise prompted an "active" review of the Israeli request for more warplanes and that the review would begin "pretty promptly."

Eban said most of his discussion with Rogers was devoted to the U.S. proposal for an interim agreement to reopen the Suez Canal.

"I understand the United States is maintaining and expects to intensify its exploration of the possibilities of a Suez Canal agreement," said Eban.

Meanwhile in Washington, 76 senators have signed a resolution urging President Nixon to act "without further delay" to resume shipment of F4 Phantom jets to Israel.

A resolution, to be introduced today by Senate Republican leader Hugh Scott, is the latest in a long series of Senate actions designed to resume the flow of U.S. arms to Israel as a means of countering Soviet weapons deliveries to Egypt and other Arab states.

4,650 More GIs Being Withdrawn

SAIGON (AP) — An antiaircraft battery fired on a U.S. reconnaissance plane over North Vietnam Thursday, and one of the plane's escorting fighter-bombers attacked the enemy guns, the U.S. Command reported today.

A spokesman, Capt. James d'Entremont, said the fire did not hit the unarmed reconnaissance plane or the two escorting Phantoms, and the results of the escort's attack were not known.

The action occurred 95 miles north of the demilitarized zone and 14 miles east of the Laotian border, farther inside North Vietnam than most such U.S.-Communist exchanges reported this year.

It was the 67th "protective reaction" attack by U.S. planes over North Vietnam this year.

In South Vietnam and along the Cambodian border, ground fighting was limited to small-scale skirmishing, according to official reports.

However, military sources reported that an American adviser, a South Vietnamese district chief and a company commander were among nine persons killed in a Viet Cong ambush in the Mekong Delta early Thursday.

The Viet Cong ambushed a company of militia and combat police who were rushing to reinforce a militia outpost under attack in Kien Thien, about 150 miles south of Saigon.

Two militiamen were killed and two were wounded at the outpost; and four of the reinforcements were wounded in addition to the nine killed. Enemy casualties were not known.

South Vietnamese headquarters reported another small but sharp fight Thursday in the U Minh forest 145 miles southwest of Saigon in the Mekong Delta. the South Vietnamese reported 23 enemy troops killed and said six of their own men were wounded.

The action was the fourth of such size this week reported in the U Minh forest, where the South Vietnamese 21st Division has been trying to dislodge Communist troops for nearly a year.

The U.S. Command announced that it is reducing American troops strength in Vietnam by 12 units totaling 4,650 more men, the second largest cut announced at one time since the U.S. withdrawal program began in mid-1969.

Riley Makes Appointment

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Lt. Gov. Bob Riley Thursday appointed Mrs. Minnie Gatling Wylie to serve the unexpired term of her late husband, Harris E. Wylie, as Dallas County Judge.

Wylie died last Friday.

Foreign Aid Bill Slashed 20 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has voted to end all assistance to Pakistan and earmark special funds for Israel while slicing 20 per cent from this year's military assistance program.

The powerful panel, nearing completion of its work on President Nixon's $3.5-billion foreign-aid requests, put off final work on the authorization measure until next week.

The committee voted Thursday to cut U.S. military aid to other nations from $705 million to $565 million after several efforts failed to reduce the military program even further.

The vote on the 20-per-cent military-aid cut was 7 to 6, senators said. The military-aid funds are part of the total $3.5 billion foreign aid the President has requested.

The committee also earmarked a special $85-million aid fund for Israel. Sen. Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., said the money—in the form of an assistance loan—was decided on by the committee after military-aid funds were cut.

Industralists Now Backing Freeze Plan

HOT SPRINGS, Va. (AP) — Top industrialists who make up the Business Council have done a turnabout on wage and price control—from near total rejection six months ago to virtually unanimous support of President Nixon's price freeze and Phase 2 plans.

Corporation heads arriving for today's first session of the council's fall meeting here told reporters privately they hope the President's strong economic medicine will cool inflation fever sufficiently to permit an early return to free markets.

But some predicted Phase 2 may last 18 months to two years because, as one of them said, the expectation of inflation has become solidly imbedded in public psychology.

At least two major manufacturers told newsmen they expect the guideposts for wage increases—still to be developed by the new Pay Board—may permit annual increases of 5 to 6 per cent. They indicated that industry would not find such a wage cost intolerable.

There were general declarations of agreement and support for Nixon's Phase 2 machinery such as the 15-member labor-industry-public Pay Board and the Price Commission of seven public members.

Several council members said the White House assurance to AFL-CIO President George Meany that Pay Board decisions would not be subject to veto by the Cost of Living Council had been planned from the start. One industrialist said the White House had so indicated to management representatives in recent meetings.

Though none of the members would be quoted, all acknowledged they had reversed their views on wage-price control since the council's spring meeting here in May.

Orders Prices on Caskets

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A new California law orders funeral directors to put conspicuous price tags on all caskets and outlaws requirements for caskets in cremations.

A spokesman for Lt. Gov. Ed Reinecke announced the bill signing Thursday. Reinecke is chief executive during Gov. Ronald Reagan's two-week tour of the Far East.

The new law also orders funeral directors to provide customers with complete price lists and tables of fees before asking them to sign contracts. The act goes into effect early next year.

Senators Ask Free Lunches for Millions

By AUSTIN SCOTT
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Fifty-nine senators asked President Nixon today to stop the Agriculture Department from setting "unlawful" guidelines which, they estimated, would cut more than one million children from the federal school-lunch program.

It was the second time in four weeks that a large group of senators has asked the President to step into the continuing dispute over how much money should be spent on the program that helps feed an estimated 7.3 million school children.

Nixon did not agree to intervene when he was asked to by 44 senators several weeks ago. Two weeks later, however, the protested guidelines were revised—and the new ones promptly ran into a new storm of protest.

The 59 sent a letter to the President just hours after the House Education and Labor Committee, in a rebuke to the Agriculture Department, unanimously approved a bill to stop the proposed new guidelines.

Gazette Is Against Native Son

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Gazette said today in an editorial that Little Rock lawyer Herschel Friday should neither be nominated nor confirmed to the U.S. Supreme Court.

It was learned this week that Friday was one of six persons under consideration for two vacancies on the high court.

The Gazette said it would be "gratifying" if it could endorse the nomination of an Arkansan to the Supreme Court but that in this instance the newspaper said it could not.

The Gazette said that for more than a decade Friday's law firm had been opposing in the courts school desegregation "which is the greatest single accomplishment in constitutional justice that the Supreme Court has made in this century."

Friday's appointment to the court would offer nothing except difficulty for the court in continuing implementation of the principle of racial equality, the editorial said.

"In the most basic terms, much of the legal labor of Herschel Friday over the last dozen years has been turned to the purpose of keeping black children out of 'white' schools," the Gazette said. "On this basis alone, his nomination would set off a furious battle over confirmation in the Senate."

Discovery Would Cost More Now

NEW YORK (AP) — A direct descendant of explorer Christopher Columbus says discovering America today would cost about $523,000 using the same materials as in 1492.

Lt Cmdr. Christopher Columbus of the Spanish navy says the original voyage might have cost less "considering that shipyards worked on wood and my estimate is based on today's technique. And the cost would consider that the crew worked just for the adventure of it."

Columbus—Cristobal Colon in Spanish—is in New York to attend Spanish Week. He is a scholar on the life and times of his 17th great-grandfather and guardian of the family archives.

Advance Team Sent to China, Nixon's Visit Seen Within Six Weeks

WASHINGTON (AP) — If history is any guide, President Nixon's history-making journey to Peking will take place within the next six weeks.

The White House announced Thursday that Dr. Henry A. Kissinger, the chief executive's foreign policy aide, will leave here Saturday on a 10-day mission to mainland China during which he and government specialists will make final preparations for the Nixon visit.

In the past, advance trips of this type normally have preceded presidential journeys by, at most, a few weeks.

Nixon must be in Washington in early November to greet India's prime minister, Indira Ghandi. He also has a Nov. 9 commitment to attend one of nearly two dozen Republican fund-raising dinners to be held around the country.

As of now, Nixon's public

Surcharge on Some Textiles Is Lifted

WASHINGTON (AP) — The White House announced today that the United States is lifting the 10 per cent surcharge on noncotton textile imports. It said agreement has been reached with Japan, South Korea, Taiwan and Hong Kong to restrain the flow of textiles sent here.

Presidential press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler announced that U.S. Ambassador David M. Kennedy signed a memorandum of understanding with Japan today and will sign a similar agreement with South Korea in Seoul tomorrow.

The agreement with Taiwan has already been concluded and the Hong Kong delegation is signing its agreement here later today.

Presidential economic adviser Peter Peterson said that the surcharge is being lifted with regard to noncotton textiles imported from all countries. The four Asian producers are the major providers of textiles in the United States.

All of the agreements go into effect retroactively as of Oct. 1. The agreement with Japan will run for three years with consultations for renewing for an additional two years and the other countries will be under restraints for five years.

It marks the end of a three-year effort by the Nixon administration to curb the flow of synthetic and woolen textiles to the United States.

Forest Fire Fatal to Man

WARREN, Ark. (AP) — Johnny Clower, 23, of Warren was killed Thursday while fighting a forest fire about 25 miles south of Warren.

Officials said Clower, a volunteer, was helping state forestry officials extinguish the blaze when a large tree fell on him.

Explosion Shatters Iran Consulate

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — An explosion shattered the interior of the Iranian Consulate late Thursday night, sending gas-fed fires through the building, and police said today they believed it was caused by a powerful bomb.

Fire officials said there were no injuries.

They said four young, unidentified persons fled the consulate in night clothes after the blast, which Fire Chief Keith Calden called the "biggest explosion I can remember."

Every window in the three-story, wood frame building was shattered, furniture and other contents were hurled about and walls and floors were tilted out of position, Calden said.

He said fires were touched off when the blast ruptured gas meters and the flames shot up dumbwaiters.

The force of the blast knocked out windows in homes two blocks away.

Investigators probing the devastated building, police Inspector Theodore Peck said, "are pretty well certain it was a bomb."

The blast apparently occurred in the consulate's basement, the chief said.

Officials of the Pacic Gas & Electric Co. who visited the scene said they found no evidence of a gas leak.

Calden estimates structural damage alone at $100,000.

The consulate is in the exclusive Presidio Heights residential section in northwest San Francisco.

In the past, the consulate has been picketed by dissidents protesting policies of the Shah of Iran.

Gun Explodes, Student Hurt

ARKADELPHIA, Ark. (AP)— Shelby Lyon, 18, of Warren, a student at Henderson State College at Arkadelphia, was critically injured Thursday afternoon when a homemade cannon he was firing on the campus exploded, police said.

$2 Minimum Wage Voted by Committee

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Education and Labor Committee has voted to raise the minimum wage of some 35 million workers to $2-an-hour as of Jan. 1, two years earlier than asked by President Nixon.

Voting largely along party lines, the committee also voted Thursday to raise the minimum wage for an additional 10 million workers brought under the federal minimum wage law in 1966 to $1.80 on Jan. 1 and to $2 the following year.

The minimum wage for both groups now is $1.60 an hour.

The committee also tacked on an amendment that would ban the hiring of aliens who have illegally entered the United States, such as those found Oct. 5 in the Los Angeles food processing plant of Romana Banuelos, who has been nominated by Nixon to become treasurer of the United States.

The amendment, offered by Rep. William D. Ford, D-Mich., would impose a maximum $1,000 fine and one year jail term for hiring illegal aliens.

There was little discussion of the possible effects the minimum wage increases would have on Phase 2 of President Nixon's wage price guidelines.

But there was some question whether the bill would be cleared for floor action before the first of the year in any case.

The Rules Committee, which clears virtually all bills sent to the floor, has cut off consideration of all but emergency legislation for the remainder of the year and House leaders said Thursday there had been no decision on whether to push for an exception.

The bill also would raise the minimum wage for half a million agricultural workers from the present $1.30 an hour to $1.50 next Jan. 1 and to $1.70 two years later.

Guardianships Before Little Rock Judge

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — A suit was filed Thursday in Chancery Court here seeking to require the Pulaski County School Board to recognize at least three legal guardianships concerning students in the district.

The board voted Tuesday not to recognize any legal guardianships dated after May 31, 1970, if the parents of the pupil in question lived together and were residents of the district.

Supt. J. K. Williams said that in some cases guardianships of pupils were changed so the pupil could attend a school other than the one to which he was assigned.

The suit was filed by Myrtle Gourgues as legal guardian of Pamela Ann Brown, and by John H. Brown legal guardian of Laurel Lesly and Julia Ellen Brown.

To Determine County Needs

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Bill Alexander, D-Ark., announced Thursday that he will hold a hearing Oct. 23 at Walnut Ridge to determine community development needs of five counties in his district.

Invited to the second hearing are leaders from Jackson, Lawrence, Randolph and Clay counties.

Woman Injured in 29 Wreck

About 4:20 p.m. autos driven by Rich Peterson and Nicky Marlar, both of Lewisville, collided 9 miles south on Highway 29 and a passenger in one of the cars, Mrs. Gilmer Smith, was taken to a Lewisville hospital for treatment of what was considered minor injuries.

State Policeman Wallace Martin said the Peterson vehicle, traveling north, made a left turn into the path of the Marlar car. There was heavy damage.

Institute Is Blasted by a Bomb

IAMBRIDGE, Mass. (AP) — A bomb explosion early today at Massachusetts 'Institute of Technology did "extensive damage" to the fourth floor of the Grover Hermann Building which houses the institute's Center for International Studies.

No one was in the building when the bomb went off, campus police said, and no injuries were reported.

Daniel Ellsberg, a part-time associate at the center who said he leaked the Pentagon Papers to the press, has an office on the fourth floor. His office was not damaged.

The bomb was planted in a ladies room and did extensive damage to several offices across the hall, police said.

Editors at the Boston Record American said they received a call from a woman who said a bomb would go off. The newspaper notified Cambridge police who arrived at the building just as the bomb exploded.

Arkansan IsPegged the Frontrunner for U.S. High Court Nomination

By MICHAEL J. REILLY
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP) — Legal sources peg a woman judge and an Arkansas lawyer as frontrunners for nomination to the Supreme Court. But a high administration spokesman says at least 15 persons are under consideration.

Only six names have been submitted for examination by the American Bar Association, a move Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell says will be made for any person he recommends.

Among those six are Herschel H. Friday, 46, a Little Rock municipal bond attorney, and Mildred L. Lillie, 56, a Los Angeles appellate court judge, who are said to be leading contenders to succeed Justice John M. Harlan and the late Justice Hugo L. Black.

But the high-level spokesman Thursday discounted reports the six are finalists in the search for two names President Nixon will send to the Senate for confirmation.

The spokesman said at least 15 persons are on the list, which may be expanded even further.

White House press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler had said Thursday more than six are under consideration, but he refused to say how many.

The high-level administration spokesman who later spoke of 15 refused to be named.

Nixon says he will announce his nominations next week.

Asked if the list of 15 might take more time for the ABA to investigate, the spokesman raised the possibility more than two federal circuit court judges are under consideration. If that were the case, the selection process would be speeded because circuit judges are routinely investigated by the bar association.

Two circuit court judges are among the six in primary contention: Paul H. Roney and Charles Clark, both of whom sit on the 5th Circuit Court.

Others among the six are Judge Sylvia A. Bacon, District of Columbia Superior Court and Senate Democratic Whip Robert C. Byrd of West Virginia.

P.G. Wodehouse Turns 90 and Is Happy Man

REMSENBURG, N.Y. (AP) — Novelist P. G. Wodehouse turns 90 today, calling himself simply "a very happy man."

Telegrams and cables from around the world poured into the white clapboard cottage in this small Long Island village where the English-born author and his wife Ethel have lived for almost 20 years.

"And pipes," he said, "people have sent pipes from all over. But then you can never have too many pipes."

Wodehouse, whose foppish heroes usually smoke gold-tipped cigarettes, has smoked a pipe for years. His family thinks a birthday picture, printed in many countries, which showed him with a pipe, set off the flood.

Presents have included an engraved silver tray from his step-grandchildren in London, a jar of cranberry jelly, an enormous birthday cake baked by the cleaning woman.

DAR Good Citizen

SANDRA MCFARLAND

The regular luncheon meeting of the John Cain Chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution was held at 12 noon Wednesday, October 13 at the Town and Country Restaurant. Hostesses were: Mrs. George Frazier, Mrs. Floyd Monzingo, and Mrs. Arthur Wimmell.

The opening ritual was conducted by the Chaplain, Mrs. C.B. Voss.

The Regent, Mrs. Paul Klipsch, presented Sandra McFarland as the 1972 DAR Good Citizen. Her nomination was based on leadership, patriotism, dependability and service. Sandra gave an interesting talk on leadership. Mrs. W.E. McFarland pinned the Good Citizen pin on her daughter.

Mrs. Klipsch gave the President General's message. Mrs. E. F. Formby gave a national defense message on our responsibility to youth. The secretary, Mrs. James W. Branch, read the minutes of the last meeting and a letter from Mrs. Virginia Cochran, Hope High School Librarian, thanking the chapter for the gift subscription to the DAR magazine sent to the HHS Library.

Mrs. Arthur Wimmell reported that the National Chairman of the American Indian Committee had announced a national project providing approximately $15,000 for a new chapel-auditorium building for St. Mary's School for Indian Girls in Springfield, S.D. This school is supported by various organizations of the Episcopal Church, the National Society, DAR and by other organizations and private individuals.

As there was no further business the meeting adjourned.

Army to Get Around Ban to Cambodia

By ROBIN MANNOCK
Associated Press Writer

PHNOM PENH (AP) — The U.S. Army plans to get around the Cooper-Church amendment's ban on American military men in Cambodia by hiring $200,000 worth of foreigners for noncombat work, American officials report.

"They are people who can do under contract what we are forbidden to do," a U.S. source declared. Another source said they would be cheaper than American civilians.

Cooper-Church, passed by Congress last year, bars American military advisers, training personnel and combat troops from Cambodian soil.

The sources said the foreigners, known in official circles as "third country nationals," would supplement the American military equipment team which is responsible for handing over arms and ammunition to the Cambodians but is forbidden to show the Cambodians how to use the equipment.

Headed by Brig. Gen. Theodore Mataxis, the team's current strength is 113 men, with 50 officers and enlisted men assigned to the Cambodian capital and the rest in Saigon.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee on Thursday voted to limit to 50 the number of foreigners hired in Cambodia. Most likely they will be Koreans, Nationalist Chinese, Australians or New Zealanders experienced in dealing with the American military in South Vietnam or Laos, where some have been engaged in hazardous undercover work for the Americans.

The $200 million U.S. military assistance program for fiscal 1972, which is now the subject of congressional hearings, includes "a line" for third country nationals, a source said. He added that salaries for foreigners in Cambodia might total $200,000 a year.

The foreigners would be employed in supply depots and maintenance shops behind front lines, although the sources did not rule out an eventual role as combat advisers.

The sources said the use of foreigners had been recommended by teams of military experts who visited Cambodia to study supply snarls.

The sources noted that a handful of foreigners are already being paid by the American military assistance program to Cambodia. They include about 10 Air America maintenance crewmen who keep Cambodia's T28 fighter-bombers flying, a representative from Bell Helicopters and three Filipinos brought here from Laos to set up an English language school.

Economics Award to American

STOCKHOLM (AP) — Dr. Simon Kuznets of Harvard University today won the 1971 Nobel Prize in Economics.

The Swedish royal Academy of Sciences cited the 70-year-old native of Kharkov, Russia, "for his empirically founded interpretation of economic growth which has led to new and deepened insight into the economic and social structure and process of development."

Kuznets is the American winner of a 1971 Nobel award, worth $88,000. Dr. Earl Sutherland of Vanderbilt University was named winner of the prize for medicine on Thursday.

The Swedish Academy said Kuznets' work "has brought new and deeper insight into the structure and development of the economic and social system since the middle of the last century and has given fruitful incitements to continued research."

"More than any other scientist, he has illuminated with facts—and explained through analysis—the economic growth over the past 100 years," the citation said.

Kuznets received his training as an economist in the United States and took his doctor's degree at Columbia University in 1926.

He carried out the greater part of his research as a member of the staff of the National Bureau of Economic Research during the years 1927-1960. Since 1931 he has also held various university posts.

Between 1936 and 1954 he was professor of economic statistics at the University of Pennsylvania and from 1954 to 1964 he was professor of political economy at Johns Hopkins University.

In 1958-59 he was also Frank W. Taussig research professor of economics at Harvard and in 1960 he named professor of economics at the Cambridge institution. He retired July 1 and is now a professor emeritus.

The economist's bibliography lists some 220 items, including 30 books and extended essays. His total publication runs to well over 9,000 pages.

Highlights of Consumer Protection

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are highlights of the consumer-protection bill passed by the House Thursday and sent to the Senate:

Agency—Creates an independent consumer-protection agency inside government as an action unit for advocacy and advancement of consumer interests before other agencies. It would have responsibility for gathering and disseminating information on consumer affairs.

Office—Gives statutory base for the President's Office of Consumer Affairs, which was created through executive order, and would have it serve as advisory unit for the chief executive.

Council—Establishes a 15-member consumer advisory council, with members serving staggered five-year terms, representing outside consumer, producer and public interests, to bring new ideas and viewpoints to government attention.

Cost Estimate—For first five years, the three-part system is estimated to cost $38.8 million, with $33.4 million of this going to run the agency based on an estimated 200 workers for the first year.

Other Key Objectives—The bill authorizes programs of consumer education and information, procedures to handle and publicize complaints, a limited amount of product testing and spreading of test results, and studies of household product safety.

Trade Secrets—The bill would bar disclosure of trade secrets and other confidential information.

Subpoena Powers—The agency would have no subpoena power of its own. But it could intervene in another agency's proceeding and then use the host agency's subpoena authority in connection with the case at hand.

Regulatory—The bill does not set up another regulatory body but is designed to let the consumer's voice be heard in proceedings before existing regulatory agencies.

Senate—Similar legislation passed the Senate a year ago but died on a tie vote in the House Rules Committee.

Administration Backing—The White House supports the bill. House Republican Leader Gerald R. Ford of Michigan hinted that serious changes in the House-approved version could result in a presidential veto.

Celebration a Glittering Assemblage

By HUGH A. MULLIGAN
Associated Press Writer

PERSEPOLIS, Iran (AP) — The Shah of Iran entertained his glittering assemblage of guests at an eight-course, six-wine banquet Thursday night.

Royalty and commoners, leaders of Communist and capitalist countries and representatives of traditional foes set aside their differences for the occasion and for the roast peacock, quail and lamb served up in the imperial mess tent amid the ruins of Persia's ancient capital.

Vice President Spiro T. Agnew, flanked by the vice president of Poland and the crown prince of Sweden, downed 1911 Moet champagne at a head table that included eight kings, 13 presidents and assorted prime ministers, governors-general and sultans.

Welcoming his guests to the banquet celebrating the 2,500th anniversary of the founding of the Persian empire, the shah urged them to harmonize their efforts for a world "free from fear, anxiety and the constant threat of annihilation."

As the 12-piece string orchestra played Mozart and the television lights shown on Empress Farah's fabulous jewels, Italian waiters moved silently through the aisles with the gastatorial masterpieces created by Maxim's of Paris and prepared by 80 Swiss chefs.

ADVANCE TEAM (From Page One)

schedule after Nov. 9 is blank. Precedents would point strongly toward a China visit later next month. However, no American president ever has gone to the Chinese mainland and, after nearly a quarter century of only roundabout contact between the two countries, past practices might prove deceiving in this case.

Kissinger is due back in the United States about Oct. 25 and has said an announcement of dates for the Nixon trip will follow soon hereafter.

The presidential aide and his group, flying aboard a presidential jet commanded by Col. Ralph D. Albertazzie, Nixon's personal pilot, will make a 48-hour stop at a resort hotel in Hilo, Hawaii, en route to China.

Nixon also is expected to pause for about two days on his trans-Pacific journey in order to rest and adjust to the physical and psychological rigors of passing through successive time zones at jet speed. Hilo presumably will be his stopping place, too.

Kissinger's route is likely to duplicate Nixon's, again if precedents mean anything. It is standard practice for presidential pilots to traverse in advance the international routes their bosses will follow, in order to familiarize themselves with airports and navigation facilities along the way.

The Kissinger route: from nearby Andrews Air Force Base, Md., to Travis Air Force Base, Calif., to Hilo to Guam—for an overnight stop—then to Shanghai and Peking. He will return via Anchorage, Alaska.

Kissinger's major mission will be to arrange a detailed agenda, in collaboration with Chinese officials, for Nixon's substantive talks with Premier Chou En-lai and other officials, presumably including Chairman Mao Tse-tung.

Others in his party will be responsible for planning logistics and liaising presidential protection, communications with Washington and press arrangements.

Lady Fleming Asks Release

ATHENS, Greece (AP) — Lady Amalia Fleming has asked that she be freed from serving the remainder of a 16-month prison term for helping plot the escape of the would-be assassin of Greece's premier.

The widow of Sir Alexander Fleming, the British scientist who discovered penicillin, said Wednesday that further confinement would result in irreparable damage to her health.

The 62-year-old Lady Fleming is said to have a diabetic condition and also suffers from abdominal complications from surgery several years ago.

Greek authorities said her application to the courts for release would be decided upon in about three weeks.

Wedding Vows Are Repeated

MRS. PERCY W. ROSENBAUM

The marriage of Miss Brenda Elaine Hicks and Percy Wayne Rosenbaum was solemnized at 8 p.m. October 9 in the Unity Baptist Church. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Marie Duffey, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerrell Rosenbaum of Fulton.

The Rev. Gordon Renshaw performed the candlelight double-ring ceremony before an arch of southern smilax and burning tapers. A white wrought iron prie-dieu and floor baskets of white gladiolus and stocks completed the setting. The family pews were marked with white satin bows.

Mrs. Arthur Strech provided the pre-nuptial music and the traditional wedding marches. Bob Hand sang "Whither Thou Goest" and "Because" prior to the ceremony and "The Lord's Prayer" as the couple knelt on the prie-dieu.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Barry Hill of Little Rock, wore an Empire silhoutte of imported peau de soie. Delicately designed re-embroidered Alencon lace was used for a full-length front panel with detachable over skirt which fell to a chapel train. The bodice and sleeves were also trimmed with Alencon lace. Crystals and tiny pearl loops held in place the veil of English illusion. She carried a cascade of fleur d'amour centered with a white orchid.

Attending her sister-in-law as matron of honor was Mrs. Barry Hill of Little Rock. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Tommy Burkhart, Mrs. Mitchell McDonald of Benton, and Miss Debbie Rosenbaum of Fulton, sister of the groom. All were attired in formal-length gowns of pink crepe with mandarin collars. The high waistline was outlined with white lace beading and pink ribbon, and the long fitted sleeves were edged in the same trim. In their hair they wore complementing bows of the same material with short illusion veils.

Little Misses Sheila and Sharon Hill of Little Rock, nieces of the bride were the flower girls. They were dressed identically to the bridesmaids. As they preceded the bride, they threw rose petals from their white baskets adorned with pink corsages.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Duffey wore a pink Shantique coat and dress ensemble with venise lace trim and matching accessories. Mrs. Rosenbaum, the groom's mother, wore blue lace over taffeta with matching accessories. Each had a white orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the church. The bride's table was covered with a pink cloth overlaid with white embroidery. Two silver candelabra held white burning tapers, and a silver centerpiece held pink carnations, white carnations and baby's breath. From this table the bride's cake, punch, and mints were served. From the groom's table, covered with brown, chocolate cake, coffee, and mints were served. Piano music was played by Wendal McCorkle.

After a wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Hope, where they are both employed.

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — New television series often have their greatest difficulties in getting started. Sometimes one must kick off with a certain show because it sets the scene and introduces the people—and often it is one of the least engaging of the lot. In other cases—usually involving action and adventure series—the initial program is picked as the most exciting on hand.

Sometimes a series that looks dreary and maladroit at launching, picks up steam and better scripts as it moves along.

Not always. "Bearcats," CBS's Wild West series, does not seem to improve with age. The year is 1915 and there are more model T's than horses and more jaunty straw boaters than 10-gallon hats to be seen but it remains a tedious hour with completely predictable plot turns. Worst of all, it assumes a jaunty air that just doesn't come off.

The story Thursday night involved a small town captured by a band of desperados. Their evil leader offered to release the village priest if the remaining townsmen built a gallows. His old daddy had been hanged there five years before for a killing and the leader was bent on revenge.

Hank and Johnny—Rod Taylor and Dennis Cole—strutted around for most of the hour and finally set a big explosion under the gallows, sprayed machine-gun bullets around, captured the villains and freed the priest. The idea of an adventurer for hire was carried off with considerable elan in "Have Gun, Will Travel." This one seeks to substitute 50-year-old props, mostly old cars and armaments, for a good story.

"Bearcats" has some tough competition, including another Western about a pair of jaunty adventurers, ABC's "Alias Smith and Jones." And Flip Wilson's program on NBC has an audience almost as big as the two rival series together.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

HE GIVES SLACKS THE AIR, OR VICE VERSA

Dear Helen:

I bought my husband an expensive pair of double-knit slacks and he wore them for the first time during our city's late fall heat wave. Temperatures were over 100, so he decided to skip the underwear, and he didn't take a jacket to work.

Well the moment he sat down - split! The whole back seam came apart! He backed out of the office bowing like a Japanese waiter, and he says the worst five minutes of his life were walking from his building to where his car was parked.

Do you think I can get him near those pants again? I've stitched and re-stitched that darn ripped seam, but no: he isn't having any. I'll put those $30 slacks out for him to wear, and he digs in the closet for his "safe" old numbers. Maybe you don't think this is a great problem, but it represents a lot of money to me.

Is there any psychology I can use to show my husband that lightning (or splitting) doesn't strike twice in the same place? —M.G.

Dear M.:

Sometime it does: especially with stretch fabric. . .And once bared, twice cautious.

Your husband may never feel wholly comfortable in those pants, but the store's tailor could reassure him. Take 'em back and ask for a no-rip repair job, specifying polyester thread and a "stretch stitch." It may be no more secure than YOUR sewing, but here's where the psychology comes in: men trust an "expert" more than they do their wives. —H.

Dear Helen:

I hate to say it, but our 36-year-old son is a real "old maid." He has always lived at home, doesn't have a lady friend, thinks marriage is for stupid people only, and criticizes everything my husband and I do.

He doesn't like our taste in television (but won't buy himself a portable); won't go out with us, but resents being left at home; can't stand company; thinks our grandchildren are terrors; dislikes my cooking; and finds fault with everything, in and out of the house.

He has an excellent job but says it's ridiculous to get an apartment when he could be helping us out with room-and-board money.

Well, it's true, we can use the money (though over three-fourths of it goes for his food and phone bills, etc.). And besides, parents can't throw out their own flesh and blood. But we can't take his bickering much longer. It gets worse every day.

Help! —MRS. T.R.W.

Dear Mrs. W.:

Why not double your son's room and board bill and let HIM make the next move?

(If the price freeze applies to relatives living at home, then tell him frankly what you should have said 17 years ago: "You're a big boy now. Start a life of your own!") —H.

FALLING LEAVES

Falling leaves--aimlessly they drift to earth as they usher in the season of Thanksgiving and winter. They descend and die. Left to the mercy of the elements, they disintegrate and go back to earth. Unforgetable in life but they are wasted away in death.

Godless lives are much the same. For they too, drift without direction. They look without finding, strive without succeeding, reach without grasping, exist without knowing why. They are alive but not living...wasted in life and forgotten in death.

In Isaiah, Chapter 35, we can learn more of this mirage, this rendezvous with death. As leaves must cling to the tree to survive, so must lives cling to God. Falling leaves have lived and died. Godless lives have died.

Nelson Briles Hero of 3rd Victory

By KEN RAPPOPORT
Associated Press Sports Writer

PITTSBURGH (AP) — In the musical "Damn Yankees," the hero is Joe Hardy—a dreamer who realizes a lifelong wish by helping his hometown team win a pennant.

Nelson Briles of the Pittsburgh Pirates once played the role in an amateur production—and Thursday he played it in real life.

"This is the high point of my career, the culmination of two years of frustration," said Briles, a part-time student of the arts who pulled down the curtain on the Baltimore Orioles with a two-hit, 4-0 beauty in the fifth game of the World Series.

Briles carried his emotions into the batter's box when he cried while receiving a standing ovation in the eighth inning. It was no act.

"At that moment, all of the people who have been so good to me down through the years, who have encouraged me, flashed across my mind," said Briles.

The pitching performance was baseball drama tat its best. Briles, once a 19-game winner but a St. Louis Cardinal castoff, had tried to find himself this year with the Pirates.

"Coming out of spring training, I was throwing the ball well," said Briles. "But I understood that the Pirates had a staff that had won a division title the year before. I understood that I had to wait my turn."

He toiled the first half of the year for Pittsburgh out of the bullpen—much like his injury-riddled season last year with the Cardinals when he had only a 6-7 record.

The 5-foot-11, 200-pounder, waiting in the wings, finally got a starting assignment when the staff became plagued with sore arms.

Briles, who occasionally throws so hard he falls down, finished strong, winding up with eight victories, and the role was a repeat performance of 1967 when he did the same thing for the Cardinals. Not incidentally, he also pitched a World Series victory over the Boston Red Sox that year.

"That was quite a thrill for me," said Brilles. "But this one over the Orioles means more to me. This was the culmination of two years of work. I had a miserable year in St. Louis, tore a hamstring and wound up almost unwanted in the Cardinal bullpen.

"Then I was traded and I had to earn my colors here. You don't know how gratifying it is when you want to do a good job and you do a great job. It's been a long road back."

Briles, a California native, pitched only one year in the minor leagues before joining the Cardinals in 1965.

A leopard can't change his spots. Neither can a bridge player, but the bridge player can pay close attention to them and get the most from them.

West began by cashing his four hearts. This started the defense in dormie position, since one more trick would set the contract. South discarded the three of diamonds from dummy and a careless South would have discarded a small club from his own hand. Not this South. He was a careful player and he let the jack of spades go.

This represented a potential trick but it was an unimportant one. South needed to find the king of diamonds in the East hand to make his contract and the location of the spade queen was immaterial.

West shifted to the queen of spades and South was in. He cashed his ace and queen of clubs and now we see why he was wise to keep both small clubs in his own hand.

He was able to lead the seven of clubs to dummy's king. A successful finesse of the diamond queen followed. Then South led the four of spades to dummy's six in order to finesse diamonds a second time. He collected the rest of the tricks and won the rubber.

Razorbacks Wind Up Practice

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — "We'll just wait now," said Coach Frank Broyles Thursday following the Arkansas Razorbacks' final practice before Saturday's game with the Texas Longhorns.

Thursday's practice was closed to the public and the news media and all Broyles would say is that it was a "regular Thursday workout."

"What is there to say," said Broyles. "My heart is beating faster with each hour. These last two days are the toughest."

Broyles said that defensive halfback Steve Birdwell and running back Jon Richardson would miss Saturday's game. Birdwell suffered a chipped ankle bone Tuesday and Richardson is recovering from a broken leg.

The Porkers were to travel to Little Rock this afternoon for Saturday's game.

Eye Surgery for Pistons' Dave Bing

ANN ARBOR, Mich. (AP) — All-Star Detroit Piston guard Dave Bing underwent a delicate eye operation this morning which will cost him at least two months away from the basketball court and could affect his future in basketball.

The surgery was done at the University of Michigan hospital under a team of surgeons headed by Dr. Morton S. Cox, Jr.

Broyles Is an Authority on Big Game

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas Coach Frank Broyles is an authority on Texas' performance in a "big game."

"They have tradition and they know what it is to play in the big ball games," Broyles said. "Who they play is how good they play. Don't look at somebody they can beat with their left hand and think this is a different Texas team."

The national championship was at stake when Texas and Arkansas met in December the past two years. Texas won 15-14 in 1969 and 42-7 last year.

There will be no national championship on the line Saturday when Texas meets Arkansas at Little Rock in a nationally televised contest, but the winner will take a giant step toward the Southwest Conference championship and a Jan. 1 appearance in the Cotton Bowl.

Ten of the last 12 years, the winner of the Arkansas-Texas game has earned at least a share of the SWC championship. Texas holds an 8-4 edge during the period, including four straight victories over the Razorbacks.

Texas dropped from No. 3 to No. 10 in the ratings after losing to Oklahoma 48-27 last week.

"Everybody tends to think just about last week and not about the first three ball games (UCLA, Texas Tech and Oregon) where Texas looked extremely strong both offensively and defensively," Broyles said.

"I don't see any difference in Texas this year than the seven or eight years," Broyles said. "They're superbly coached, have great athletes and play great football. And, this is their last big game of the year."

Broyles also said Oklahoma's 21-point margin was deceptive.

"It looked like it was going to be a real battle right down to the wire until Texas got two big penalties—one after making a first down deep in Oklahoma territory and the other for roughing the kicker," Broyles said, "And, 10 of Oklahoma's points came on desperation passes."

Broyles says the Razorbacks must control the football keeping it away from Texas' Wishbone-T attack.

"That's the only way to keep their offense from dominating the game," Broyles said. "We think we have a good offense, but theirs is so much simpler to execute. They just line up and run their plays. They have that kind of strength in their running game. It's just overpowering."

Broyles also says the Razorbacks must reduce their mistakes. While compiling a 4-1 record, Arkansas has lost nine fumbles, had seven passes intercepted and received 35 penalties for 327 yards.

"You expect mistakes from a squad this young, but you can't make them and expect to stay on the field with Texas," Broyles said.

Royal said earlier in the week that quarterback Donnie Wigginton would be out from one to three weeks with injured ribs, but it appeared Thursday that Wigginton would start Saturday. Royal also has said he does not think halfback Don Burrisk, linebacker Glenn Gaspart, tight end Rick Davis and split end Jim Moore will play. However, Gaspard returned to practice Wednesday.

"After their first win over UCLA, they thought this team would be even better than last year's," Broyles said. "One loss doesn't change that. Nor does injuries. The history of Texas against Arkansas is that the people who are hurt get well for the game, and that when they don't, they find someone on the second or third team who can do the job just as well."

Bobkittens in Win at Nashville

By ALAN FOSTER
Star Sports Writer

How to skin a Scrapper by Hope's Junior Bobkittens. That could sum it up as the Kittens went to Nashville last night and came home with a victory by a score of 20-6.

It all began when Larry Johnson broke the opening kickoff 88 yards for a touchdown. Martindale's PAT was no good and that was all the first quarter scoring. Hope 6, Nashville 0.

Mike Hobson's punt was partially blocked and it landed on Hope's 39. A 22 yard run by Leo Hughes made it six apiece after an unsuccessful pat. That's the way the teams retired at the half with the score tied six apiece.

Nashville received the opening kickoff the second half. Unable to move, they punted to their own 49 where Hope took over. Eight plays later the Kitten quarterback, James Robinson scampered 8 yards to paydirt. Martindale's PAT split the uprights making it 13-6, with 26 seconds left in the half.

With 7:11 left in the game the Hope defense gave the offense the ball on the Scrapper 25 after spoiling a fake punt. But the offense couldn't move and finally gave up the ball on downs at the 22.

It was seemingly all over until Jud Martindale intercepted a pass and returned it to the Scrapper 22. On the next play James Robinson scampered 22 yards for his second touchdown of the evening. With :02 left in the game Martindale added the PAT and that was all! Final score Hope 20, Nashville 6.

Unofficial Statistics

Hope's total yards — 262.

Larry Johnson was Hope's leading rusher with 162 yards on 14 carries.

Grundy Led Nashville with 62 yards on 12 carries.

Doc Protho of Baseball Fame Dies

MEMPHIS, Tenn. (AP) — James Thompson "Doc" Prothro, 78, normer professional baseball player and manager of the Philadelphia Phillies from 1939 through 1942, died at his Memphis home Thursday night.

Prothro was the father of James "Tommy" Prothro Jr., head coach of the Los Angeles Rams football team.

The elder Prothro was a graduate of the University of Tennessee College of Dentistry in Memphis and practiced for a short time before entering professional baseball.

Prior to managing the Phillies, he played with the Washington Senators, Boston Red Sox and Cincinnati Reds.

OSU Frosh Again Lick the Shoats

FAYETTEVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Quarterback Jeff Troutt scored two second-half touchdowns to boost Oklahoma State to a 41-28 victory over Arkansas in a freshman football game here Thursday.

Both of Troutt's TDs came in the third period on runs of one and two yards.

George Palmer also scored twice for OSU. He scored in the first period on a one-yard run and in the second period on a 14-yard pass from quarterback James Sykora.

The Shoats scored three times in the first half on short runs by Scott Bull and Marsh White and on a 57-yard pass from John Booty to Jimmy Payne.

Gives Porks the Edge Over Texas

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas-Texas game will have little effect on the national championship for the first time in three years.

Two Oklahoma teams saw to that.

Little matter, Arkansas and Texas would play with the same fierceness if both were 0-5.

Instead of claiming the national championship, the winner Saturday at Little Rock will gain the inside track to the Southwest Conference championship and the Cotton Bowl—not exactly piddling prizes.

Arkansas is 4-1, wrapping victories over California, Oklahoma State, TCU and Baylor around a 21-20 upset at the hands of Tulsa. Texas defeated UCLA, Texas Tech and Oregon before falling to Oklahoma 48-27 last week.

Rest assured, the Longhorns will be ready Saturday.

"Texas plays on form and tradition," says Arkansas coach Frank Broyles.

Statistically, Arkansas has an edge in total offense, passing offense, total defense and rushing defense. Texas, battered by Oklahoma for 435 yards rushing last week, is ahead of Arkansas in passing defense and rushing offense.

To win, Arkansas must keep the ball away from the Longhorns' ground-oriented Wishbone-T attack. To control the football, the Razorbacks must reduce their mistakes — 16 offensive turnovers in five games — and mix the passing of Joe Ferguson with the running game.

Last year's 42-7 victory by Texas is the exception in this series. The rule is 15-14, 27-24, 14-13, 7-3.

Give Arkansas the edge on Bill McClard's toe.

ARKANSAS 31, TEXAS 28.

Arkansas State University can't afford to stand around this week thinking about its first loss in 21 games. The Indians, beaten 21-14 last week by Southern Illinois University, meets Louisiana Tech Saturday night at Ruston, La.

Tech is coming off an impressive 35-15 victory over Southwestern Louisiana.

"They can do so much more offensively than Southern Illinois," says ASU Coach Bill Davidson. "We have our hands full again."

Tech quarterback Ken Lantrip has completed 44 of 76 passes this year for 813 yards and five touchdowns. Freshman running back Charles McDaniel has gained more than 400 yards in four games and has scored seven touchdowns.

ASU also has the offensive firepower and this may be the week it explodes.

ASU 27, LA. TECH 20.

Last week's record was 5-2, setting the season's percentage at .818.

Here are other predictions involving Arkansas college teams:

Arkansas Tech 17, State College of Arkansas 14.

Southern State 20, Austin College 13.

Florence, Ala., 23, Henderson 14.

Harding 14, UA-Monticello 10

AM&N 14, Ouachita 8.

Catholics Win Over Jacksonville

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Fourth - ranked Little Rock Catholic defeated Jacksonville 41-13 and North Little Rock upset eighth-ranked Little Rock Central 23-14 in high school football action Thursday night.

Speedy quarterback Terry Blalock passed for two touchdowns and carried the ball into the end zone for a third to pace the Rockets to victory.

Jacksonville jumped to an early 7-0 lead in the first quarter, but Catholic had taken a 14-7 lead at the half.

Senior Bill Bird kicked three field goals to lead the Wildcats to victory over Central.

Bird, who had kicked only one previous field goal this season, scored kicks of 23, 29 and 30 yards.

Quarterback David Haustein threw touchdown passes of 11 and 13 yards during the first half to give the Wildcats a 20-0 advantage at the half.

Famula Has the Lead at Pinehurst

PINEHURST, N. C. (AP) — Eddie Famula of Short Hills, N. J., who never has played on the pro golf tour, had a two-stroke lead as the $100,000 PGA Club Pro championship went into the second round today.

Famula, 36, shot a seven-under-par 63 Thursday on the No. 1 course of the Pinehurst Country Club. Half the field of 253 played No. 1 and the others played the longer, tougher No. 2 championship course.

The players switched courses for today's round.

Famula, who had three major operations in a 10-month period in 1969-70, has been playing more this year "to catch up," he said. He carded six birdies, an eagle and one bogey in his 29-34 opening round.

Two strokes back at 65 were John Reudi of Coronado, Calif., Fred Wampler of Denver, Colo., Bob Goetz of Longview, Tex., and Jimmy Powell of Yorba Linda, Calif.

George McKeown of Pine Bluff, Ark., was next with 66.

The event is limited to pros who have not played in more than 12 tour events this year. The field will be cut to 90 low scores and ties after today's round, with Saturday and Sunday play limited to the No. 2 course.

Pirates Could Make History

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Pittsburgh Pirates, poised on the threshold of World Series History, have returned to Baltimore, hoping to deliver the knockout blow to the suddenly staggering Orioles as quickly as possible.

The Pirates took command of the series by sweeping three straight games on the artificial tartan turf of Pittsburgh's Three Rivers Stadium. They were set to go for the title in Saturday's sixth game with Bob Moose, another member of the rather non-descript pitching staff that has suddenly stilled the Baltimore bats.

It was Nelson Briles' turn in Thursday's crucial fifth game and the veteran right-hander responded with a brilliant two-hitter that gave the Pirates a 4-0 victory and left them one game away from their first title since 1960.

Suddenly, the Series that seemed a mismatch when Baltimore won the first two games, has turned around and the world champion Oriole team is in trouble.

If the Pirates beat the Birds Saturday, they will become the first team in Series history to win four straight after dropping the first two games.

Four other teams have won the title in seven games after dropping the first two. But no team has come back from that deficit to win the classic in six.

"We'll see what kind of club this is on Saturday," said Frank Robinson in the somber Baltimore dressing room. "We can still win if we want to win."

Briles called his dramatic fifth-game victory, "the culmination of everything I've worked for in the last two years. They've been two hard years with a lot of work and not too much success."

Briles was a mainstay of the St. Louis pitching staff with 48 victories in three seasons before slumping to a 6-7 record last year. The Cards swapped him to Pittsburgh in a four-player trade last winter.

"We figured on him as a spot starter and long man out of the bullpen," said Danny Murtaugh, manager of the Pirates. Used both ways, Briles was 8-4 with a 3.04 earned run average. He managed just four complete games.

But Murtaugh planned to start him in the third game of the National League playoffs against San Francisco.

Then, a few minutes before gametime, he came up with a pulled groin muscle and the start went to Bob Johnson instead. The Pirates won the game but Briles felt lost.

"It was a low point in my career," he said.

But Murtaugh didn't quit on the veteran right-hander and gave him the start in the pivotal fifth World Series game. This time, Briles was ready.

He needed just 99 pitches to dispose of the Orioles and faced just 29 batters—two over the minimum.

He was in command from the start and got the only run he needed when Bob Robertson rocked Dave McNally's first pitch for a leadoff homer in the second inning.

Briles drove in a second run with a timely single and then the Pirates added two more—one without a hit when they capitalized on Gene Clines' triple and Roberto Clemente's single in the fifth.

When Briles came to bat in the eighth inning, the capacity crowd of 51,377 gave him a standing ovation. It was an obviously emotional moment for the pitcher.

"At that moment, all the people who've been so good to me through the years and encouraged me when I've been down, flashed through my mind," Briles said. "In all honesty ... I cried."

Briles finished the Orioles off easily in the ninth despite a momentary lapse when he walked Don Buford with two out. When he got the final batter on a force play grounder, he was mobbed by his teammates.

"Today meant more to me than any game I ever pitched," Briles said.

Baltimore Manager Earl Weaver, meanwhile, tried desperately to figure out a way to restore some punch to the Oriole line-up. The Birds collected 16 runs and 24 hits in the first two games of the Series but just nine hits in the three games at Pittsburgh.

"I wish I knew what I could do," said Weaver.

"We've been bad in everything," said Frank Robinson. Defense, offense and pitching. It hasn't been one thing, but a whole combination of things."

Their sudden slide at Pittsburgh left the Orioles on the brink of elimination. "Now we'll see what we're made of," Frank concluded.

Asked if he was bringing champagne along with him for the trip to Baltimore, Murtaugh grinned.

"I'm taking a quart of skimmed milk," he said.

Washington Favored to Win Again

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP) — Talking about the sweet smell of success. The 1971 National Football League season has been a bed of roses for the Washington Redskins while the Buffalo Bills have been playing in a rock garden.

This weekend the Redskins will smell victory for the fifth time in as many games while the Bills will catch the scent for the first time this season.

Thats how it looks from here, where the speciality is raising winning picks with a thumb whose green matches either grass or artificial turf.

Last week, we had a 9-4 record for a two-week mark of 16-9-1.

Washington 27, St. Louis 24—Washington's Curt Knight and Jim Baaken should get their kicks, but the Redskins' consistency gives them an edge over the Cardinals who run hot and cold.

Buffalo 31, New York Jets 21—The winless Bills have been shut out twice in a row and are hungry for a score. The points should come more easily against a New York defense missing end John Elliott and tackle Gerry Philbin.

Baltimore 27, New York Giants 17—The Giants have been taking advantage of opponents mistakes but making plenty of their own. Baltimore doesn't make many mistakes.

Detroit 17, Houston 7—Shapes up as a good defensive game. Houston scared Kansas City and Washington and might scare the Lions, but the Oilers won't beat them.

Minnesota 24, Green Bay 14—Green Bay can run, but the Vikings have the best defense against the rush and they also like to do things to rookies, which is what Packers quarterback Scott Hunter is.

Cleveland 17, Cincinnati 10—Paul Brown will have Cincinnati sky high against the team he used to run, but the Browns figure to have too much saavy for the Bengals and rookie quarterback Ken Anderson.

Oakland 38, Philadelphia 3—The same old story. The Eagles opponent is solid, the Eagles aren't.

San Francisco 28, Chicago 16—Kent Nix has done wonders at quarterback for Chicago, but San Francisco's John Brodie is better and angry after losing to Los Angeles.

Denver 20, San Diego 17—Denver is tough at home and better than 0-3-1. San Diego is coming off a game, which it lost, with Kansas City, always a tough physical experience.

Atlanta 24, Los Angeles 21—Injuries, of which both clubs have several, records etc. aside, Norm Van Brocklin has a way of getting Atlanta up for teams he used to play with.

Dallas 35, New Orleans 17—Calvin Hill is out for two weeks with a knee injury, but the way Duane Thomas ran against the Giants Hill shouldn't be missed.

Miami 42, New England 14—Rookie quarterback Jim Plunkett has done wonders for New England, but this time the wonders cease.

Kansas City 23, Pittsburgh 17—Pittsburgh is improving, but Kansas City is rolling and that's even better.

Orioles Can't Explain What Happened

By GORDON BEARD
Associated Press Sports Writer

BALTIMORE (AP) — The Baltimore Orioles, unable to explain what happened to their once potent attack in Pittsburgh, try to regain their batting eyes at a workout in friendly Memorial Stadium today.

"I don't know what's going on," outfielder Frank Robinson said, "but I think we ought to burn the bats we used in Pittsburgh."

After cracking three home runs among their 10 hits in the opening game of the World Series and 14 singles in the second game, both Baltimore victories, the Orioles suddenly went cold in Pittsburgh.

While losing three straight to the Pirates, the Orioles made just nine hits--just three in the last 18 innings after the first three batters singled to open game No. 4.

A Robinson home run averted a shutout as Steve Blass pitched a four-hitter in the third game. Two of the three first-inning singles in game No. 4 never left the infield, and the other safety was a bloop double.

"They haven't knocked the bats out of our hands, although they have pitched good games," third baseman Brooks Robinson said. "We've just stopped hitting."

Frank Robinson, while giving special credit to the performance of Blass, blamed Baltimore batters for most of the futility at the plate.

"We've been hitting the pitcher's pitch instead of waiting for ours," he said. "We've got to be more determined at the plate, and know what we want to do."

"I wish I knew what to do," Manager Earl Weaver said. "Maybe the day off will help."

The Orioles have had more trouble than merely a lack of hitting. Their usually tight defense has been charged with nine errors and the pitchers—including the four 20-game winners who have started every game—have been in almost constant trouble.

"When's the last time we had a 1-2-3 inning in the field?" Frank said. "Maybe we can't hit because we're all tired from standing out there."

"We've been bad in everything," he said, "defense, offense and pitching. It hasn't been one thing, but a whole combination of things. The thinking hasn't been too good, either."

Despite their troubles in Pittsburgh, the Orioles were welcomed home by a noisy throng at Friendship International Airport Thursday night.

Several thousands fans, carrying homemade signs and chanting, "We're No. 1," cheered their heroes.

The reception brought tears to the eyes of several players' wives, and Agnes Etchebarren, wife of catcher Andy Etchebarren, said: "This was so nice of them. This might make the difference."

Weaver said although the home team has won all five games to date, he saw no advantage of resuming the Series in Baltimore.

He named Jim Palmer, the second-game winner, to start Saturday and said he was "90 per cent sure" that Mike Cuellar would pitch should a seventh game be necessary.

The Orioles, who tied a record held by just two other clubs while winning 100 or more games for three consecutive years, can set a World Series mark by winning the next two games.

Never before have two clubs won all the games at home in a seven-game Series. On four occasions, including 1925, 1955, 1956 and 1965, the home team has won six of the seven games.

Hope Goes to Arkadelphia Tonight

By BILL MOORE
Star Sports Writer

Tonight the Hope Bobcats travel to Arkadelphia to take on the Badgers in one of the most bitter growing rivalries in the state.

Hope, the underdog by most predictions, goes into the game with two conference losses while on the other hand Arkadelphia will be fighting mad to avenge their only conference loss to Magnolia last week. But then again, don't think the Bobcats won't be ready to hand a return favor for what the Badgers did last year to Hope.

Although both teams average out the same as far as weight goes in the offensive line, Hope has a slight advantage in the defense, weighing 193 to Arkadelphia's 180. There is also plenty of speed and quickness on both teams.

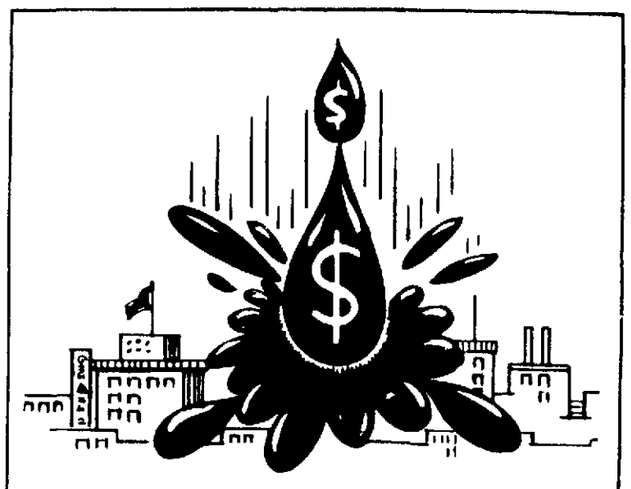

Tonight the Cats try for win number five, over a vastly improved team from what started out early in the season. The Badgers have put together a good passing attack to go with the running and should be hard to stop as they have been in the past. But unfortunately for the Badgers, Hope still remembers last year. The Bobcats by about a 21-7 score.

State Ready for Louisiana Tech Game

JONESBORO, Ark. (AP) — Arkansas State University's Indians reviewed assignments Thursday in preparation for Saturday's game with Louisiana Tech.

"It was a real good session," said Coach Bill Davidson. "We're fired up and I think we'll play a big game Saturday night."

LIFEBLOOD OF THE COMMUNITY

Your dollars are what make our home town click. They support our churches and schools, provide jobs that attract and hold young people, make our community a better place in which to live and raise a family.

Think twice before you let your dollars leave home. Gone for good, they help no one. Spent at home, everyone benefits and that is good for you.

Buy at home and save at home. That's the sure way to keep our future as it should be . . . bright.
